Cincinnati-based Guidance Dance Company to Perform in Times Square

CINCINNATI – Four dancers from Cincinnati-based Guidance Dance Company will perform at the sixth annual Project Dance Event on April 21, 2007, in New York City's Times Square.

Courtney Brackman, Ashley Bradley, and Sarah Dent of Mason, OH and Meredith Tillery of Fairfield, OH will represent Guidance Dance Company in New York. "Our goal is to present a message of hope through the universal language of dance," said Sarah Schatz, Artistic Director.

Project Dance was born out of a desire to serve the people of New York directly after the events of September 11. Each year thousands of New Yorkers stop to watch the concert held on a temporary stage on the corner of 44th Street and Broadway.

Guidance Dance Company will join about 400 dancers in New York City to participate in the festivities. Although the weekend is designed to give participants the opportunity to perform and take dance classes, Project Dance also strives to inspire dancers as artists and individuals. All of the activities over the weekend focus on faith and personal growth.

Guidance Dance Company is a Christian Dance Ministry based in Cincinnati, Ohio. Our vision is to help young Christians explore dance as a form of worship and to teach them to use dance as an evangelical ministry. We have recently performed with Hope Church in Mason, Liberty Heights Church in Liberty Township and Evangelical Community Church in Mt. Healthy as well as Twin Lakes, Twin Towers, Cottingham, and Brookwood Retirement Communities.
